

The Owl's Journal

November 1, 2008

Written and Published by Madison Owl

Volume 2, Issue 9

Tullivers Pet Food in Albuquerque

Yeeee Haa for all you ABQ people now there is another alternative to where you can buy healthy food for your cat or dog. Tulliver's is now open for business in Albuquerque. And, yes, the Santa Fe location is still open and thriving.

My dear friend Ellen Hutchins is the owner of Tulliver's. Her mission with the store, in a nut shell, is to provide the healthiest and safest food for your animals. Plus she sells awesome pet toys that promote good health, much happiness and lots of great play time for your furry friend.

The inside scoop on how the name Tulliver's came about is from Ellen's two schnauzers Tully and Oliver. I must admit, Tully is the cutest guy this side of the Rio Grande, especially when he skips. It just melts my heart.

Anyway, if you want to check out the new store, and I highly urge you to, you may look it up on line at www.tulliverspetfood.com.

Or drop by. They are located at 7900 Carmel Ave, which is one block east of Wyoming and one block north of Paseo del Norte.

A Bid For Life at Bridging The Worlds

The First Annual On-Line Auction BID FOR LIFE will take place Saturday, November 15, 2008. All proceeds from the auction will benefit Bridging The Worlds.

For those of you who may not be familiar with Bridging The Worlds, it is an animal sanctuary committed to helping dogs in need. Bridging the Worlds' primary purpose is animal cruelty prevention. They focus on rescuing dogs from abuse, neglect, and abandonment, and nurse them back to health and well being. They give veterinary care as needed and provide excellent nutrition. They also give lots of kindness, love and affection to displace any torment the dogs have previously endured. Once the dogs are feeling renewed, they find safe and loving homes for them. A few of the animals will never be adopted due to the impact of previous injuries or health problems. Bridging The Worlds provides them with permanent sanctuary for life.

Over the past few years I have had the opportunity to help Beverly with some of the dogs that have passed through, or stayed at Bridging The Worlds. The work Beverly and her crew do is such an invaluable service. Beautiful dogs that have had bad lives come to her and she loves them back to health and well-being.

Some of the horror stories she has told of how she receives these animals reminds me why I could never do the work she does, but I can help support her efforts. One way, is to give a gift certificate of my service to the auction. If you have your own business and would like to help raise money for Bridging The Worlds, please go to their website asap and find out how you can donate your service or products for their auction.

www.bridgingtheworlds.org

Or find out how to bid for some wonderful, great, good stuff that has been donated to Bridging The Worlds.

Mark your calendars and help a great cause.